Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1,7 and 13 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Marshall (H1497).

As to claim 1, Marshall teaches a method of analyzing audio visual data, comprising the steps of:

Training and producing a statistical model for a user representing a combined audio feature and visual feature, where one channel is based on audio sounds while the other is based on image input (Col.2, line 58-Col.3, line4); and

Applying the model to process and analyze the audio -visual data and classify properties including the intended use behavioral gesture among other properties (Fig.1;Col.7, lines 46-52; Col.2, lines 11-42).

Claims 7 and 13 are analogous to claim 1 and are rejected by Marshall for the foregoing reasons.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 19-22 are allowed.

Claims 2-6, 8-12 and 14-18 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: Marshall doesn't teach identifying observable visual and audio feature as recited in claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Pertrushin (6,275,806).
